

*42nd HMTA
Annual Convention*

*November 7-15, 2009
University of Hawai'i at Manoa
Music Department*

A large, faint watermark of a musical staff with a treble clef and several wavy lines is visible in the background of the text area.

About the Convention...

Do you feel stressed and overworked? Do you need ideas to organize your life? Do you need new ideas to refresh your teaching? Do you feel you need ‘shots’ of inspiration and rejuvenation? The 42nd Annual HMTA Convention may have answers for you.

The workshops by Marilyn Nagel, William DeVan, and Lori Cacioppo may meet your needs by giving you ideas on generating systems to manage your life, teaching, and finances; thereby giving you better time management skills, more energy, and higher levels of production.

Besides workshops, the recital by our guest performer and Steinway artist, William DeVan, will inspire you with his performance technique, musical understanding, and versatile repertoire. In addition, the annual Junior Artists and High School Competitions will culminate with the Winners’ Recital, which will support Hawai’i’s reputation of teaching excellence.

An extra benefit of attending the convention, which could be its most important phase, is the networking of colleagues and new acquaintances (clinicians, performers, new members, and guests).

The concluding event, the 2009 HMTA Convention Finale, should end the convention with a BANG! It will be the prototype of networking as members work cooperatively to present this collaborative recital to benefit the University of Hawai’i’s Music Department.

Please register by October 24, 2009 to guarantee your seats for all events. The registration form is the last page of this brochure. Non-members are welcome to attend all convention events. Passes and additional tickets may be purchased on your form or log on to www.hmta.org for additional forms. Tickets will also be available at the door at all events.
